

KING'S CROSSING

FASHION OUTLETS

KINGSTON, ONTARIO

STOKES is a Montreal-based privately held company with 103 stores across Canada.

The name Stokes is derived from the city Stoke-On-Trent located in England. Stoke-On-Trent was home to the world's greatest pottery manufacturers.

Mr. Philip Shiveck, a watchmaker by trade, founded the company in Montreal in 1935. The first store sold primarily jewellery, porcelain collectibles and fine china and was located on Rachel Street in the "Plateau" district.

Today, Stokes is Canada's leading retail chain specializing in tabletop and giftware products and its stores are located mostly in Canada's best enclosed malls.

Our buyers travel the world searching for the latest trends in home fashion and items for your kitchen, ensuring that our stores are always on the leading edge of the needs of today's consumer. Our relationship with designers and factories worldwide allows our customers to buy the latest products at the best prices.

Our dedicated team of employees is always enthusiastic and happy to serve you in order to make every store visit an enjoyable experience.

We look forward to seeing you at our Stokes location at King's Crossing Fashion Outlets!
